Aid & Attendance

Eligible Veterans are entitled to a pension benefit that pays for nursing care

The Aid and Attendance (A&A) pension benefit provides financial assistance for various facets of personal care for veterans and surviving spouses. The pension pays $24,000 annually for veterans and their spouse to receive care in a home. This benefit is intended to ensure veterans receive any needed assistance with eating, bathing, dressing, and other needs of nature. This basic information sheet details eligibility requirements and how to apply.

Eligibility Any War-Time Veteran with 90 days of active duty, 1 day beginning or ending during a period of War, is eligible to apply for the Aid & Attendance Improved Pension.
